

Agents love ShowingTime’s Enhanced Feedback as it helps them market themselves with no extra effort. ShowingTime’s Enhanced Feedback generates more feedback while putting the spotlight on your listing, your company and you.

Feedback Work Flow

1. Feedback request is emailed to showing agent within one hour of the showing
2. Second, third and fourth requests are sent later if feedback is not received; you decide how often and when to send them
3. Once received, you can review the feedback and publish it, making it available to your seller
4. Home by ShowingTime creates a unique showing activity report for sellers to access 24/7 if you add them to their listing’s contact sheet

Enhanced Feedback Includes:

- ☑ A listing photo & your photo with your feedback request email to help showing agents remember you and your listing
- ☑ Unlimited customized questions to get specific feedback that will help sell your listing faster
- ☑ Graphical summary reports that provide a visual display of feedback responses
